

InterAction Vol 3 No 2 (November 2011)

Contents

01 Editorial – Small next steps for SF theory

Peer-reviewed papers

02 Testing the Association between Solution-Focused Coaching and Client Perceived Coaching Outcomes Coert Visser

03 Heidegger Undisclosed Dave Hawkes

Discussion paper

04 How working with organisations might be different from working with teams and individuals... Christine Kuch and Susanne Burgstaller

Classic SF paper

05 Introduction by Kirsten Dierolf

06 Resistance Revisited (1989) Steve de Shazer

Cases

07 Creating one team: Business unit culture change at a professional services firm Annette Gray

08 Uncovering Treasure: Influencing with Solution Focus Loraine Kennedy and Colin Coombs

Interview

09 Nora Bateson: An ecology of conversation
(Ingenta please note to include the interviewee's name along with the title please!)

Reviews

10 Research Reviews Dave Hawkes

11 SFCT Full Member Reviews

Book Reviews

12 Peggy Holman: Engaging Emergence

13 Cynthia Franklin, Terry Trepper, Wally Gingerich and Eric McCullom: Solution Focused Brief Therapy

14 Peter Röhrig and Jenny Clarke: 57 SF Activities for Facilitators and Consultants

Appendix

15 Clues 1.2